Indigo Pearl Honoured as Global winners for “Best Luxury Suite Hotel” and “Exceptional Host Property” at the 2013 World Luxury Hotel Awards

(6th November 2013) – Leading luxury lifestyle resort Indigo Pearl in Phuket is delighted to announce the awards of World’s “Best Luxury Suite Hotel” and “Exceptional Host Property” as overall Global Winner in each category at the 2013 World Luxury Hotel Awards.

The World Luxury Hotel Awards are recognized as the world’s leading luxury hotel awards. Winners are voted by acclaimed industry experts from across the globe alongside hotel guests based on their overall hotel experience. The 2013 voting poll proved to yield a record number of votes which have been scrupulously monitored and over 1,000 hotels from 87 countries were nominated to participate in the world’s most prestigious Awards initiative for luxury hotels in 2013.

“It is for us an exceptional honour to partner with the World Luxury Hotel Awards to also have the privilege to host this spectacular renowned event attended by the world’s top hoteliers that has a significant impact on the larger hotel industry. To receive two awards in recognition of our experience and service delivery has great meaning to our team”, said Mr Chris Oakes, General Manager of Indigo Pearl Resort.

Note to Editors:

Situated within its own tropical gardens – where lush lagoons juxtapose post-modern art – Indigo Pearl is located on Phuket's sheltered northern shore, an easy 10 minutes from Phuket International Airport. A Bill Bensley design masterpiece, the 'all villa and suite' property offers 177 accommodation choices, 8 restaurants and bars, 3 outdoor pools, private beach club, library, tennis courts, 'TinBox' kids' club, award-winning COQOON Spa, conference facilities and Thai cooking school. A host of leisure facilities both on land and sea can also be arranged.

Raw beauty. Bold designs. Luxury unhindered.
