Reward for Layana's Commitment to Excellence

Bangkok, Thailand – 28 June 2016 - Layana Resort & Spa Koh Lanta, has, once again, excelled at the recent 2016 World Luxury Spa Awards, with its Linger Longer Spa receiving the highly prestigious award for Global Winner in the Luxury Destination Spa category. This award recognizes the spa's "unsurpassed service excellence in the category" and is a unique and special recognition for Layana on the global stage.

Spas from all over the world were present at the hugely successful Spa and Restaurant gala event, hosted by World Luxury Hotel and Spa Awards, and held on 18th June 2016 at the magnificent Grand Hotel Kronenhof Pontresina in St. Moritz, Switzerland. On behalf of Linger Longer Spa, Mrs Cathrina Fuchs, Head of MBK Hotels Representation Germany received the prestigious award

Layana's General Manager, Mr. Stefan Heintze, was naturally delighted; "This award is a tremendous complement to the Linger Longer Spa team who continue to demonstrate their devotion and enthusiasm in providing an exceptional, first-class service for all our spa visitors. The awards are voted on by hospitality professionals and by returning guests, and our extremely good reviews and special mentions on social media have been particularly pleasing".

Layana's Linger Longer Spa is a complete wellness destination, set in idyllic garden surrounds, and offers treatments designed to promote physical, mental and emotional well-being. Guests can rediscover their inner harmony through a comprehensive range of Eastern and Western health and beauty treatments, including traditional and aromatic massages, scrubs, body treatments and facials.
