“Linger Longer Spa” Country Winner 2017 Tops The Awards

Krabi, Thailand – 23rd July, 2017. The 2017 World Luxury Spa and Restaurant Awards ceremony was recently held at the JW Marriott Hotel Hanoi, Vietnam, hailed as a truly splendid occasion and resounding success. Koh Lanta’s Layana Resort and Spa was honored and delighted to once again have its “Linger Longer Spa” awarded Country Winner for Thailand as Luxury Destination Spa 2017.

These prestigious Awards are especially rewarding as they are decided on a wide range of criteria, including brand, location, overall guest satisfaction from online reviews, services and facilities, design, and even menu offerings. The industry recognizes the Awards for setting standards around the globe, providing, as they do, a true appreciation of luxury and supreme service.

Layana’s General Manager, Mr. Stefan Heintze, who collected the Award on behalf of Linger Longer Spa, was naturally delighted; “this is, for us, a wonderful reward for our continued commitment to providing our guests with top quality facilities and highly experienced, professional and friendly spa practitioners. The great reviews and positive comments on social media have pleased us immensely as these demonstrate that our guests appreciate the outstanding efforts and devotion of the Linger Longer Spa team”

Layana’s Linger Longer Spa is a complete wellness destination, set in idyllic garden surrounds, and offers treatments designed to promote physical, mental and emotional well-being. The Spa offers a comprehensive range of Eastern and Western health and beauty treatments, including traditional and aromatic massages, scrubs, body treatments and facials.
