

THE ST. REGIS BALI RESORT RECOGNIZED AT 2014 WORLD LUXURY SPA AWARDS

BALI, INDONESIA, 17 April 2014 – The St. Regis Bali Resort is honored to announce that The Remède Spa has been awarded “Best Luxury Destination Spa in Indonesia” at the coveted The World Luxury Spa Awards. Tucked away amidst the resort’s lush gardens, The Remède Spa is a true haven with a moon and butterfly theme that runs through the spa facilities. Recognizing that each guest, face, and body is unique, no two facials or massages are the same. Highly trained therapists customize each treatment to ensure guests receive the most appropriate, beneficial treatment to meet their individual goals.

At The World Luxury Spa Awards, seventeen categories were awarded including Luxury Beauty Spa, Luxury Destination Spa, Luxury Day Spa, Luxury Spa Group, and Luxury Wellness Spa. The winners and finalists were selected by means of an annual voting process where thousands of spa guests from 144 countries have been given the opportunity to vote online in order to have the fairest judging process possible. Competing spas in 2014 included small sized privately owned spas to globally renowned spa groups.

Lucia Liu, Hotel Manager of The St. Regis Bali Resort said, “We are truly honored to have been recognized as the leading destination spa in Indonesia. Our goal is to provide a world of relaxation beyond our guests’ expectations and this award is a culmination of the hard work by our associates.”

The Remède Spa offers eight luxurious private treatment rooms, one facial room and one beauty salon. In addition, the spa also features a Finnish sauna, an aromatherapy steam room, and a unique Aqua Vitale pool, which provides guests with a sea salt bath while enjoying the jetwater massage.
