Balayage

Balayage gives a more natural lighting effect, similar to how hair looks when it's naturally sun-kissed. This technique works on different hair types and colors, and the final result can be customized to your preference, from a very subtle look to something more bold and striking.

Eyelash

Eyelash extensions are an innovative beauty treatment that can change your appearance. If you're not familiar with the process, it involves applying individual lashes directly to your natural lashes, making them appear longer, thicker and curlier. With careful application using safe adhesive, you can consult with our professional therapist to adjust the length and type of eyelash extension you want.
